OTHER STALLS

Say hello to the stallholders, and find out more about the goods and products they have for sale. Several people will be taking orders for Christmas, so do ask them.

Bucksum: David Newman supplies local, high-quality salad and vegetables to restaurants, including Waddesdon Manor and Le Manoir.

Christmas Trees: Nick Wallington, a local farmer from just outside the village, will be taking orders for Christmas trees. Delivery possible.

Kathy Chalk Glass: Individually designed decorative glass pieces, both useful and beautiful, inspired by the contours and colours of the countryside.

GladBags: Handmade bags for all occasions, created by Alison Court entirely out of recycled, reclaimed and rescued fabrics. Only the snappers are new!

Peter Goss: Local butcher will not only be offering a good range of traditional, quality meats and poultry all sourced from local farms.

Horton Accessories: Chris Cox offers fine-quality accessories for ladies, gentlemen and the home.

Jim and Jules Big Adventure: Excellent quality chutneys, jams, curds and marmalades, made in small batches with as many of the ingredients as possible locally sourced and handpicked on sunny days.

Little Shop of Cheese: Small family business based in Buckinghamshire, specialising in selling British cheeses. Wide variety, from favourites, such as Black Bomber cheddar, to lesser known cheeses from artisan dairies. Also available: homemade butter.

Pantry Books: Our ever-popular stall selling good-quality secondhand books and also CDs/DVDs.

Piddington Bakers: Village community stall selling delicious homemade cakes and bakes, made by the renowned bakers of Piddington. All proceeds will go towards repairs to St Nicholas' Church.

Shalotte: Three members of the same family, who make beautiful and original luxury copper jewellery, silk jewellery and accessories, creative decorative art dolls and cushions.

Waddesdon Deli Company: Founded in 2008 as an artisan sausage company, also specialising in home cured and smoked produce, and committed to affordable quality and good, honest, home-cooked food.
